

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 1 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

Apr 22

M

[See POLICY ALERT No. 227]

2415.51 School 11 TITLE I – SCHOOL PARENT
AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

A. District Expectations

1. In accordance with the requirements of Title I, Section 1116(a)(2), ESEA, the Board of Education agrees to implement the following statutory requirements:

a. The school district will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents in all its schools with Title I, Part A programs. These programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.

b. The school district will work with its schools to ensure the required school-level parent and family engagement policies meet the Title I, Part A requirements, and include, as a component, a school-parent compact.

c. The school district will incorporate this School Parent and Family Engagement Policy into its district plan.

d. In carrying out the Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements, to the extent practicable, the school district and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents of children with limited English proficiency, parents of children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

e. If the school district plan for Title I, Part A funds is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan upon request by the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE).

f. The school district will involve the parents of children served in Title I schools in decisions about how the one percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent, and will ensure that not less than

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 2 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

ninety percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools. (Only applicable for districts with Title I, Part A allocations greater than $500,000.)

g. The school district will be governed by the following statutory definition of parent and family engagement, and expects that its Title I schools will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:

(1) “Parent and family engagement” means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring:

- (a) That parents play an integral role in assisting their child’s learning;
- (b) That parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child’s education at school;
- (c) That parents are full partners in their child’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
- (d) The carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1116 of the ESEA.

h. The school district will inform parents and parental organizations of the purpose and existence of the Parental Information and Resource Center in New Jersey.

B. School Parent and Family Engagement Policy Required Components

1. The school will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its district/school parent and family engagement plan:

a. Convene an annual meeting to which all parents of participating pupils shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school’s participation and the requirements of the Policy and the right of the parents to be involved;

b. Provide opportunities for parents to participate with written or electronic input to the district/school parent and family engagement plan; and

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 3 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

- c. Involve parents, in an organized and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement plan.
2. The school will convene an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents of participating children shall be invited and encouraged to attend, to inform parents of their school's participation under Title I, Part A, and to explain the requirements of this part and the right of the parents to be involved:

The annual meeting will be held during our Back to School Night in the school's auditorium.
3. The school will offer a flexible number of meetings, such as meetings in the morning or evening, and may provide, with funds provided under Title I, Part A, transportation, child care, or home visits, as such services relate to parent and family engagement:

 - a. May arrange school meetings and parent/teacher conferences at a variety of times and offer virtual opportunities and options in order to maximize flexibility and accessibility; and
 - b. Provide the option for children to accompany parents to school meetings and parent/teacher conferences to maximize parental engagement. Childcare may be provided when possible.
4. The school will provide the following necessary coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Title I schools in planning and implementing effective parent and family engagement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance:

 - a. School website, fliers, voicemail and email reminders will be regularly utilized to inform and invite parent and family engagement in the planning and implementation of related daytime and evening activities;
 - b. School offerings that promote parent and family engagement may include, but are not limited to, activities such as Family Math and Literacy events, Parent University sessions, Family STEAM events,

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 4 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

and open house invitations for parents to attend and participate in daytime academic math and/or literacy classroom lessons; and

c. School activities will be shared, discussed, and planned in coordination and with parental input during monthly HSA meetings.

5. The school will build the schools' and parents' capacity for strong parent and family engagement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, through the following activities specifically described below:

a. The school will, with the assistance of its Title I schools, provide assistance to parents of children served by the school district or school, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as the following:

- (1) The challenging, state academic standards;
- (2) The state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments;
- (3) The requirements of Title I, Part A;
- (4) How to monitor their child's progress; and
- (5) How to work with educators to improve the achievement of their children.

(a) Relevant state academic standards shall be referenced and communicated during the planning and implementation stage of school offerings that promote parent and family engagement that may include, but are not limited to, activities such as Family Math and Literacy events, Parent University sessions, Family STEAM events, and open house invitations for parents to attend and participate in daytime academic math and/or literacy classroom lessons;

(b) State and local academic assessments may be explained via ongoing school website postings and distributed written communications as they reflect relevant academic standards, allow for individual student progress monitoring of growth and achievement, inform instructional decisions to differentiate to meet the student's needs , and provide timely data to inform the future planning and implementation of

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 5 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

- parent and students engagement activities and academic support offerings tailored to increase student achievement; and
- (c) Student progress will be monitored in an ongoing systematic, documented manner and communicated via Progress Reports, quarterly Report Cards, parent-teacher conferences, written and verbal communications as needed, and I&RS meetings as needed, along with additional outreach communication methods as needed.
6. The school will provide parents of participating children, if requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children, and respond to any such suggestions as soon as practically possible.
- a. The school will, with the assistance of its Title I schools, provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's achievement, such as literacy training and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parent and family engagement, by:
- (1) School offerings that promote parent and family engagement and provide related materials and training may include, but are not limited to, activities such as Family Math and Literacy events, Parent University sessions, Family STEAM events, and open house invitations for parents to attend and participate in daytime academic math and/or literacy classroom lessons; and
- (2) Utilization of district-provided instructional materials, including technology-based resources such as Google Classroom and various literacy software programs, shall be communicated with associated open invitations to support parents with gaining familiarity with their purposes, intended utilization at school and home, and technical support as needed.
- b. The school will, with the assistance of its Title I schools and parents, educate its teachers, student services personnel, principals, other school leaders, and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners, in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools, by:

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 6 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

- (1) School website, flyers, voicemail and email reminders will be regularly utilized to inform and invite parent and family engagement in the planning and implementation of related daytime and evening activities;
- (2) School offerings that promote parent and family engagement may include, but are not limited to, activities such as Family Math and Literacy events, Parent University sessions, Family STEAM events, and open house invitations for parents to attend and participate in daytime academic math and/or literacy classroom lessons; and
- (3) School activities will be shared, discussed, and planned in coordination and with parental input during monthly HSA meetings.

c. The school will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement programs and activities with Head Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, Parents as Teachers Program, and public preschool and other programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children, by:

- (1) School activities will be shared, discussed, and planned in coordination and with parental input during monthly HSA meetings.

d. The school will take the following actions to ensure that Title I information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand:

- (1) School website, flyers, voicemail and email reminders may be communicated in native languages to inform and invite parent and family engagement in the planning, implementation, and promoted attendance of related daytime and evening activities;
- (2) School offerings that promote parent and family engagement may include, but are not limited to, activities such as Family Math and Literacy events, Parent University sessions, Family STEAM events, and may include a translator and/or translated materials as needed; and

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 7 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

(3) Parent-teacher conferences and other possible verbal and written communications with parents may include a translator/translation on an as needed and/or requested basis.

7. The school will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement strategies under Title I with parent and family engagement strategies under the following programs: [Such as: Head Start, Parents as Teachers, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, and state-operated preschool programs], by:

a. School activities will be shared, discussed, and planned in coordination and with parental input during monthly HSA meetings.

8. The school will take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this parent and family engagement policy in improving the quality of its Title I schools. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in parent and family engagement activities (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The school district will use the findings of the evaluation about its parent and family engagement policy and activities to design strategies for more effective parent and family engagement, and to revise if necessary (and with the involvement of parents) its parent and family engagement policies:

a. Surveys, exit tickets, and open reflection/debriefing opportunities may be conducted at the conclusion of related parent and family engagement activities and events. Collected quantitative and qualitative data may be analyzed, evaluated, presented and discussed at HSA and other parent meetings to inform and promote collaborative planning and implementation of future enhancements, modifications, and accommodations to the parent and family engagement policy, school-parent compact, related activities and events, as well as their associated format of implementation/delivery, availability and accessibility of related materials and resources.

9. The school will take the following actions to involve parents in the process of school review and improvement:

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 8 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

- a. School activities will be shared, discussed, and planned in coordination and with parental input, feedback, and suggestions during monthly HSA meetings;
 - b. Provide ongoing opportunities for parents to participate with written or electronic input to the district/school parent and family engagement plan, school-parent compact, and parent and family engagement activities; and
 - c. Surveys, exit tickets, and open reflection/debriefing opportunities may be conducted at the conclusion of related parent and family engagement activities and events. Collected quantitative and qualitative data may be analyzed, evaluated, presented and discussed at HSA and other parent meetings to inform and promote collaborative planning and implementation of future enhancements, modifications, and accommodations to the parent and family engagement policy, school-parent compact, related activities and events, as well as their associated format of implementation/delivery, availability and accessibility of related materials and resources.
10. If the Annual School Plan (school-wide program plan) is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, submit any parent comments on the Annual School Plan (ASP) when the school makes the plan available to the local educational agency:
- a. Should data from surveys, exit tickets, and open reflection/debriefing opportunities identify aspects that are not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, appropriate school and school-parent committees and teams may analyze, evaluate, and discuss these findings to inform and promote collaborative planning and implementation of future enhancements, modifications, and accommodations to the parent and family engagement policy, school-parent compact, related activities and events, as well as their

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 9 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

associated format of implementation/delivery, availability and accessibility of related materials and resources.

C. Shared Responsibilities for High Student Academic Achievement

1. As a component of the school-level parent and family engagement policy, each school shall jointly develop with parents for all children served under this part a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement:

- a. Parents of participating students shall be invited and encouraged to offer input, feedback, and suggestions to potentially revise, modify, and enhance the contents of the School-Parent Compact;
- b. Parents of participating students may have opportunities to participate with written or electronic input to evaluate the School-Parent Compact; and
- c. Involve parents, in an organized and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs, including the planning, review, and improvement of the related School-Parent Compact to ensure a reflection of appropriate alignment.

D. Discretionary School Parent and Family Engagement Policy Components

1. The School Parent and Family Engagement Policy may include additional paragraphs listing and describing other discretionary activities that the school district, in consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involvement in the school and school system to support their children's academic achievement, such as the following discretionary activities:

- a. Involve parents in the development of training for teachers, principals, and other educators to improve the effectiveness of such training.
- b. Provide necessary literacy training for parents from Title I, Part A funds received, if the school district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for such training.

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 10 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

c. Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parent and family engagement activities, including transportation and childcare costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions.

d. Train parents to enhance the involvement of other parents.

e. In order to maximize parent and family engagement and participation in their children's education, arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend such conferences at school.

f. Adopt and implement model approaches to improve parent and family engagement.

g. Establish a district-wide parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parent and family engagement in Title I, Part A programs.

h. Develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses in parent involvement activities.

i. Provide other reasonable support for parent and family engagement activities under this section as parents may request:

(1) May arrange school meetings and parent/teacher conferences at a variety of times and offer virtual opportunities and options in order to maximize flexibility and accessibility; and

(2) Provide the option for children to accompany parents to school meetings and parent/teacher conferences to maximize parental engagement. Childcare may be provided when possible.

E. Accessibility

1. In carrying out the parent and family engagement requirements of this part, districts and schools, to the extent practicable, shall provide full opportunities for the participation of parents of children with limited English proficiency, parents of children with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required in a format and, to the extent practicable, in a language such parents can understand:

PROGRAM

2415.51/page 11 of 11

School 11 Title I – School Parent
and Family Engagement

- a. School website, flyers, voicemail and email reminders may be communicated in native languages to inform and invite parent and family engagement in the planning, implementation, and promoted attendance of related daytime and evening activities;
- b. School offerings that promote parent and family engagement may include, but are not limited to, activities such as Family Math and Literacy events, Parent University sessions, Family STEAM events, and may include a translator and/or translated materials as needed; and
- c. Parent-teacher conferences and other possible verbal and written communications with parents may include a translator/translation on an as needed and/or requested basis.

F. Adoption

1. This School Parent and Family Engagement Policy has been developed jointly with, and agreed on, parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs, as evidenced by meeting minutes.

2. This Policy was adopted by the Board of Education on the adoption date noted at the end of this Policy and will be in effect for the period of the school year. The school district will distribute this Policy to all parents of participating Title I children on or before October 1 of each school year.

Elementary and Secondary Education Act, Title I, Section 1116(a)(2)

Adopted: September 2022

